JAKARTA

Main gateway to Indonesia. Being the capital of Indonesia is located on the island of Java which is home to over half the country's population. It is a contrast of modern western architecture and traditional Indonesian culture.

PUNCAK

Is a mountainous area in West Java, Indonesia and is a very popular place among the residents from Jakarta who often visit there for relaxation. Fresh air combined with its abundant beautiful scenery and villas make Puncak a natural retreat for many visitors.

BANDUNG

A city in Western Java, Indonesia. Bandung is a highland city (768m above sea level) known for its many universities, textile industry and numerous roadside cafes. Commonly known as Paris of Java by the Dutch, its high altitude location makes the weather pleasantly cool. Nickname known as "Kota Kembang", means the flower city, since the colonial era. Flower city is often misinterpreted by many since the flower actually meant to be a girl due to the many beautiful girls in Bandung.

National monument - built during the Sukarno era. Obelisk in shape, it is 137 meters tall, made of marble, topped with a flame, and coated in 35 kilograms of gold. In the base is a historical museum and a hall of meditations. Go to the top for a bird's-eye view of the city.

Indonesia Miniature Park - Is a culture-based recreational area located in East Jakarta. It has an area of about 250 acres. It contains examples of 27 provinces and reflects the diversity of regional architecture. Apart from that, it has its own orchid garden with hundreds of varieties and there is a bird park with a walk-in aviary, a fauna museum and recreational grounds with swimming pool and restaurants, lake, a theater called the Theatre of Theater Tanah Airku (My Nation) and other recreational facilities make the park one of the most popular tourist destinations in the city

Safari Park - Is one such wildlife park which is located in an area of lush highland forests at Cisarua near Puncak. This is the only park in the whole of Indonesia with the advantage of viewing the animals roaming in the park freely. A drive through zoo where the animals roaming nearby your car is an exciting experience.
