FURANO

Tomita farm
TOYA

Lake Toya - a principal feature of the Shikotsu-Toya National Park, is an almost circular caldera lake. This lake is surrounded by hot springs, and is a popular resort area throughout the year.

Mt Showa Shinzan - Six months after a series of earthquakes first rocked the area in December 1943, a 'new' mountain appeared - just like that! The mountain is of great academic value and has been designated as a special natural monument - although it still actually emits steam

Bear Farm - The farm features a raccoon farm, "cubs' kindergarten" and a big farm. There is also acage where people can go in to feed and watch thebears.

Shiraoui AINU Village – The Ainu are the nativeinhabitants of Hokkaido showing some of their lifestyle and goods.

NOBORIBETSU

Hell Valley – surrounded by red stone cliffs. Hot steam vents and sulfurous streams pour out from the sides of this red valley area giving it a very hell like appearance.

Date Jidai Village – is a theme park which includes 94 wooden houses and the Great Ninja Theater where visitors enjoy watching fierce battles by ninja.

Noboribetsu Marine Park – The park main attraction is a marine ecology hall which houses an array of sea life, all of which can be viewed through an underwater glass tunnel.
